

Five Tower Game

You need: a partner
interlocking cubes
two dice

Roll the dice and take that many cubes. Snap them into a tower. Take turns doing this until you each have five towers.

Each of you now figures out how many cubes you have.
Compare your counts. See if one of you has more than the other or if you both have the same number of cubes. Report your findings.